Manager

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Michelle G. Wallach, Manager at Youngevity® International since its inception, has a vast background as a Network Marketing Professional. Her experience in the arena includes 10+ years in distributor management.

Michelle's interest in Network Marketing began while living in Portland, Oregon in 1991, where she embarked on a part-time nutritional health-product distributorship, eventually committing to full-time distributorship in 1994. In 1996, Michelle moved to San Diego with the vision to grow her business and capitalize on untapped resources in the health and nutrition industry. One year later, Michelle, along with the Wallach family, made the decision to launch their own network marketing nutritional-product based company.

Michelle proudly serves on the management team; assists in promotion, convention and event planning, national and international training meetings and product development at Youngevity®.

An avid Cub Scout Leader, Michelle has been married to Steve Wallach since June of 1991. Together, they have three sons, Jonathon, Zachary, and Andrew, along with two loveable English Bulldogs, Scooter & Lola!
